Dan Maltby – Marketing Strategies and Risk Management

Dan Maltby graduated from Kansas State University in 1979 with a degree in Bakery Science and Management. After working for General Mills for over 30 years, he is now the owner of The Dan Maltby Risk Management Group. Maltby was Chairman of the Kansas City Board of Trade (KCBOT) Clearing Corporation in 1996 and then began a 3-year stint with the KCBOT's Executive Committee and chaired the Exchange in 2000. He continues to serve on various KCBOT Committees. He lives in Minneapolis with his wife and two sons.

National Association of Wheat Growers – Paul Penner

Paul Penner owns and manages a cash grain farm in central Kansas near Hillsboro. His principal crops are wheat, soybeans, grain sorghum, corn and grass hay. In addition, Paul operates a custom farming enterprise in Marion County. As a representative of the Kansas Association of Wheat Growers (KAWG) on NAWG's Board of Directors, he has most recently served on NAWG's Research and Technology Committee and Operations and Planning Committee. Previously, he was a member of NAWG's Environment and Renewable Resources Committee, and was that panel's chairman in 2009-2010.
